And to Two Private Bills.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Have observed, with the utmost Satisfaction, the many eminent Proofs you have given of your zealous and prudent Attention to the Publick Service, during the Course of this very interesting Session of Parliament.

The Necessity of providing some effectual Remedy for the great and manifold Mischiefs, both publick and private, arising from the impaired State of the Gold Coin, induced Me, at the Opening of this Session, to recommend that important Object to your Consideration: In the several Measures you have taken for the Redress of those Evils, you have sufficiently manifested as well your Regard to the general Credit and Commercial Interests of the Kingdom, as to the immediate Ease and Accommodation of My People.

The very peculiar Circumstances of Embarassment in which the Province of Quebec was involved, had rendered the proper Adjustment and Regulation of the Government thereof a Matter of no small Difficulty. The Bill which you prepared for that Purpose, and to which I have now given My Assent, is founded on the clearest Principles of Justice and Humanity; and will, I doubt not, have the best Effects in quieting the Minds, and promoting the Happiness, of My Canadian Subjects.

I have long seen, with Concern, a dangerous Spirit of Resistance to My Government, and to the Execution of the Laws, prevailing in the Province of Massachuset's Bay, in New England. It proceeded at length to such an Extremity as to render your immediate Interposition indispensably necessary; and you have accordingly made Provision as well for the Suppression of the present Disorders, as for the Prevention of the like in future. The Temper and Firmness with which you have conducted yourselves in this important Business, and the general Concurrence with which the Resolution of maintaining the Authority of the Laws, in every Part of My Dominions, hath been adopted and supported, cannot fail of giving the greatest Weight to the Measures which have been the Result of your Deliberations. Nothing that depends on Me shall be wanting wanting to render them effectual. It is My moſt anxious Deſire to ſee My deluded Subjects, in that Part of the World, returning to a Senſe of their Duty, acquieſcing in that juſt Subordination to the Authority, and maintaining that due Regard to the Commercial Intereſts of this Country; which muſt ever be inſeparably connected with their own real Proſperity and Advantage.

Nothing material has happened, ſince your Meeting, with reſpect to the War between Ruſſia and the Porte; and it is with Pleaſure I can inform you, That the very friendly Aſſurances which I continue to receive from the neighbouring Powers, give Me the ſtrongeſt Reaſon to believe, that they have the ſame good Diſpoſitions as Myſelf, to preſerve the Tranquillity of the reſt of Europe.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I thank you for the Supplies which you have ſo chearfully given; and I ſee, with great Satisfaction, that, notwithſtanding the ample Grants you have made for the ſeveral Eſtabliſhments, and the Compenſation which has been ſo properly provided for the Holders of the deficient Gold Coin, you have been able to make a further Progreſs in the Reduction of the National Debt.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have nothing to recommend to you, but that you would carry into your reſpective Counties the ſame affectionate Attachment to My Perſon and Government, and the ſame Zeal for the Maintenance of the Publick Welfare, which have diſtinguiſhed all your Proceedings in this Seſſion of Parliament.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majeſty's Command, ſaid;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majeſty's Royal Will and Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 4th Day of Auguſt next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the 4th Day of Auguſt next.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, having taken into their moſt ſerious Conſideration the preſent State of the Gold Coin of this Realm, have, by their joint Addreſs, humbly offered their Advice and Opinion, That in the firſt Place it is proper that all Guineas weighing leſs than Five Penny Weights Eight Grains, and all Half Guineas weighing leſs than Two Penny Weights Sixteen Grains, and all Quarter Guineas weighing leſs than One Penny Weight Eight Grains, be called in and Recoined, according to the Eſtabliſhed Standard of the Mint both as to the Weight and Fineneſs; and that it is proper that the ſaid Guineas, Half Guineas, and Quarter Guineas, be called in by Degrees, and as faſt as the Occaſion of Circulation will allow, and as the Officers of the Mint are able to Recoin the ſame; and that the Public do bear the Loſs ariſing from the Deficiency and Recoinage of the ſaid Guineas, Half Guineas, and Quarter Guineas; provided ſuch Deficiency does not exceed the Rates ſettled by Our Commiſſioners of Our Treaſury, in their Order of the Twenty-third of July laſt; and provided they be offered in Payment to the Receivers or Collectors of the Public Revenues, or are brought to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as We ſhall authorize to receive and exchange the ſame, within certain Times to be appointed for that Purpoſe; and have thereupon moſt humbly beſought Us to iſſue Our Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, and thereby appoint ſuch Days as to Us ſhall ſeem meet, after which the ſaid Guineas, Half Guineas, and Quarter Guineas, be not allowed in Payment, or to paſs, except only to the Collectors and Receivers of the public Revenues, or to ſuch Perſons as We ſhall authorize to receive and exchange the ſame; and to appoint certain other Days after which the ſaid Guineas, Half Guineas, and Quarter Guineas, be not allowed to paſs in any Payment whatſoever, or to be exchanged in any Manner before-mentioned; We being deeply ſenſible of the Prejudice which the Revenues of Our Kingdom and the Commerce of Our good Subjects undergo by the unlawful Diminution of the Current Coins of this Realm, and being deſirous to apply a ſpeedy and ſuitable Remedy thereto, have thought fit to comply with their Addreſs.

And whereas the Commiſſioners of Our Treaſury, by their Order of the Twenty-third Day of July laſt, did direct all Manner of Officers concerned in the Receipt of Our Revenues to cut, break, and deface all and every Piece of Gold Coin of this Realm, that ſhould be tendered to them in Payment, in the Courſe of the Receipt of the ſaid Revenues, more deficient in Weight than the Rates ſettled in the Table following, viz.

Half Guineas during the ſame Period,	2	14
Quarter Guineas during the ſame Period,	1	7
Guineas coined prior to the Commencement of Our Reign,	5	3
Half Guineas during the ſame Period,	2	13

We do therefore, by this Our Royal Proclamation, think proper in the firſt Place to Declare and Command, and We do Declare and Command, that all Guineas, Half Guineas, or Quarter Guineas, more deficient in Weight than the Rates before-mentioned, be not allowed from henceforth to be current or to paſs in any Payment whatſoever within Our Kingdom of Great Britain.

And we do further Declare and Command, that from and after the Fifteenth Day of July next enſuing, all Guineas, Half Guineas, and Quarter Guineas, more deficient in Weight than the Rates ſpecified in the following Table, viz.

And We do hereby Will and Command, that, from and after the ſaid Thirty-firſt Day of Auguſt, All Guineas, Half Guineas, and Quarter Guineas, more deficient in Weight than the Rates ſpecified in the laſt mentioned Table, be not allowed to paſs or be Current in any Payment whatſoever, within Our ſaid Kingdom of Great-Britain, except that We think proper to allow Twenty-one Days to the Collectors and Receivers of Our Revenues and Taxes reſident in the Country within that Part of Great Britain called England, and Twenty-eight Days to the Collectors and Receivers of Our Revenues and Taxes within that Part of Great Britain called Stotland, for the Purpoſe of Remitting and Paying ſuch of the ſaid deficient Coin, received by them in Payment and Diſcharge of Our Revenues and Taxes, at the Receipt of Our Exchequer, or to the Receivers-General of the ſeveral Branches of Our Revenue, reſident in London and Weſtminſter, according to the Courſe of Payment in each Branch of Our Revenues reſpectively.

And We do ſtrictly Require and Enjoin the Tellers of Our Exchequer, and the ſaid Receivers-General, reſident in London and Weſtminſter, during the ſaid Twenty-one Days and Twenty-eight Days reſpectively, and no longer, to receive from the Collectors and Receivers reſident in the Country alone, and from no other Perſon, the ſaid deficient Gold Coin of Our Realm, in Payment and Diſcharge of the ſeveral Branches of Our Revenues and Taxes, ſo as that every Piece of ſuch Gold Coin be not more deficient in Weight than the Rates ſettled by the Commiſſioners of Our Treaſury in their Order before-mentioned.

And We do hereby think proper to give Notice to all Our loving Subjects, that, ſo ſoon as the Occaſions of Circulation will allow, We ſhall iſſue Our further Proclamation for calling in and recoining all Guineas weighing leſs than Five Pennyweights Eight Grains, and all ſmaller Pieces of Gold Coin, deficient in the ſame Proportion, according to the Intentions of the ſaid Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, expreſſed to Us in their ſaid Addreſs.
